

Curriculum Enrichment
Cross Cutting issues
Subject - Sociology

Programme Name	Course Name & Code	Description	GE	HV	PE	ENV & SUST. DE.	Any Other issue	Link for Syllabus
BA 1 st Sem	Introduction to Sociology DSC-SOS-01	Under this chapter, information regarding basic sociological concepts is provided to the students in the correct form and at an authentic level.
BA 2 nd Sem	Contemporary Indian society DSC-SOS-02	Along with knowledge of the importance and utility of social, cultural human roots based on social norms, the beauty and beauty of the Indian society is made aware.		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
BA 3 rd Sem	Sociology of tribal society DSC-SOS-03	To provide information about the social, cultural and economic lifestyle of the tribal society and to make aware of the tribal society's love for the environment and its conservation. One is introduced to the status of gender equality in the current changes taking place in the society.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
BA 4 th Sem	Crime and society DSC-SOS-04	Suggestions are provided to remove social inequality and strengthen social organization.		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
BA 5 th Sem	Foundation of sociological thought DSC-SOS-05	Solutions are given to solve social problems through scientific study method and research.		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
BA 6 th Sem	Methods of social research DSC-SOS-06	It is an intellectual system of facts related to society, social life and behavior and social events which helps in knowing their reality.		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>

Curriculum Enrichment
Cross Cutting issues
Subject - Sociology

Programme Name	Course Name & Code	Description	GE	HV	PE	ENV & SUST. DE.	Any Other issue	Link for Syllabus
BA 3 rd Sem	Rural society DSE-SOS-01	Rural society is the heritage of traditional values, India lives in villages. Indian values and civilization are preserved in villages which continue to spread to cities and other places. Students are provided with information about the continuum relationships between rural society and urban society.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
BA 4 th Sem	Marriage, family and kinship DSE-SOS-02	To motivate students to implement social values, norms and social rules in the society. To introduce students to the new norms and values in the changing society. Helps in understanding the continuity and stability of society.		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
BA 5 th Sem	Social Problems in India DSE-SOS-03	By making aware about the major problems of the Indian society, knowledge related to education, skill training and availability of employment opportunities along with change in social structure is given as its solution.		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
BA 6 th Sem	Population and Society DSE-SOS-04	The significance of the current Indian population structure is conveyed by focusing on the social processes and implications of demographic change.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>

Curriculum Enrichment
Cross Cutting issues
Subject - Sociology (OLD Course)

Programme Name	Course Name & Code	Description	GE	HV	PE	ENV & SUST. DE.	Any Other issue	Link for Syllabus
BA 1 st Sem	Introduction to Sociology DSC-SOS-01	Under this chapter, information regarding basic sociological concepts is provided to the students in the correct form and at an authentic level.
BA 2 nd Sem	Contemporary Indian society DSC-SOS-02	Along with knowledge of the importance and utility of social, cultural human roots based on social norms, the beauty and beauty of the Indian society is made aware.		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
BA 3 rd Sem	Sociology of tribal society DSC-SOS-03	To provide information about the social, cultural and economic lifestyle of the tribal society and to make aware of the tribal society's love for the environment and its conservation. One is introduced to the status of gender equality in the current changes taking place in the society.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
BA 4 th Sem	Crime and society DSC-SOS-04	Suggestions are provided to remove social inequality and strengthen social organization.		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
BA 5 th Sem	Foundation of sociological thought DSC-SOS-05	Solutions are given to solve social problems through scientific study method and research.		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
BA 6 th Sem	Methods of social research DSC-SOS-06	It is an intellectual system of facts related to society, social life and behavior and social events which helps in knowing their reality.		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>

Curriculum Enrichment
Cross Cutting Issues
Subject - M.A. (Sociology)-
I Semester

SNo	Course Name	Course Code	Description	GE	HV	PE	ENV & SUS T. DE.
1	Classical Sociological Tradition	MAS 201	Through the studies of sociological tradition, students develop a realistic understanding of society from various models and theories in sociology and enhance their thinking level by assimilating the different viewpoints of sociologists	✓		✓
2	Social Anthropology	MAS 202	Through this paper students develop understanding about the social norms and values of the society by studying various aspects of the past and present of the society.	✓	✓
3	Social Change in India	MAS 203	Social progress improves living standards, more consistent access to new resources and society's ability to adapt to new circumstances and challenges.	✓
4	Gender And Society	MAS S02	Students should develop the understanding that there is no inequality between men and women but they complement each other and get inspired to build a happy society, away from some evil mentality of the society.	✓	✓
5	Urban Sociology	MAS B01	A detailed study of urban society, organizations, institutions and groups helps the student to understand the various problems arising from urban life.	✓			✓

M.A. (SOCOLOGY)-II Semester

SNo	Course Name	Course Code	Description	GE	HV	PE	ENV & SUS T. DE.
1	Classical Sociological Thinkers	MAS 201	It is helpful in providing a different perspective about social relations, human activities and the factors affecting the society and is helpful in understanding the nature of society scientifically.	✓		✓
2	Quantitative Research Techniques in Sociology	MAS 202	From problem discovery to research planning, formulation and testing of hypotheses, means of obtaining and presenting data, the student gets guidance for various types of research.	✓	✓
3	Theoretical Perspectives In Sociology	MMAS 203	By studying sociological theories, students gain information about the nature of society, social relations, and factors that influence human behavior. Helps explain mechanisms of social cohesion, deviant behavior, social exchange, and dynamics of power and inequality within society	✓	✓	✓
4	Research Methodology & Computer Application: Basics	MAS 211	Become aware of research systems and research methods. In the modern technological era, knowledge of computers helps in establishing harmony in the society.	✓		✓
5	Environmental and Forest Laws	MAS S02	Being aware of the environment underlines the existence of environmental economy and society. Whatever is necessary for life, we get everything from the environment.	✓	✓		✓

6	Sociology of Development	MASB02	There is an effort to move the Indian economy away from tradition and onto the path of globalization. The student will be able to understand the meaning of development very well. helps students to be creative	✓
7	Sociology of Health	MASB03	A clean mind resides in a healthy body. It plays an important role in analyzing the social and cultural causes of diseases and illnesses. The student will be self-conscious about health and will also spread awareness in the society.	✓	✓
8	Political Sociology	MASB04	Helps in understanding the political behavior and relations between different groups and individuals in the society. Helps the student to understand the political consequences of globalization. Helps in understanding the distribution and division of power in the society.	✓		✓
9	Indian Rural Society	MASB05	The student studies the collective life of the rural society, mutual relations, the composition of different types of groups and their functions. Acquires knowledge about the traditions, folk culture, organization etc. in the rural society.	✓	✓		✓

M.A. (SOCOLOGY)-III Semester

SNo	Course Name	Course Code	Description	GE	HV	PE	ENV & SUS T. DE.
1	Classical Sociological Theories	MAS 201	Provides students with a framework for understanding the social world around them Increases understanding about the nature of social systems or the processes that influence social change	✓	✓
2	Perspectives On Indian Society	MAS 202	By studying various concepts, beliefs and principles of Indian society, students develop the ability to understand the social viewpoint and thoughts and experiences of others.	✓
3	Criminology-I	MAS 203	By studying this course, the student assimilates his conduct and behavior according to social rules, laws and social value model and can play an important role in social welfare and maintaining social order	✓
4	Intellectual Property Rights	MAS 211	The student learns to use the law to protect his intellectual property. The student begins to recognize his rights. He becomes proficient in inventions, literary and artistic works. Intellectual property can help start-ups and SMEs compete with existing companies	✓	✓	✓	✓

5	Tribal Studies	MAS S02	Tribal studies enhance the sense of existence of tribal communities, their tendency to learn from each other's cultures, their social structure, their means of livelihood, being connected to water, forest, land, their heritage, language, education, culture and lifestyle, their identity. Keeps students alive: Students can associate with nature through this study	✓	✓		✓
6	Social Demography	MAS B01	The student studies the population in the context of its size, structure, distribution, birth migration, age growth and death etc. and understands the social system.	✓	✓		✓
7	Social Statistics	MAS B02	The student acquires knowledge of human behavior and social environment through statistical data. Develops the ability to measure the progress of society, identify social problems and take policy decisions.	✓		✓
8	Social Movements In India	MAS B04	The student gets inspiration from studying this course. Students can develop the ability to focus the attention of government and society on social problems	✓			✓

M.A. (SOCOLOGY)-IV Semester

SNo	Course Name	Course Code	Description	GE	HV	PE	ENV & SUS T. DE.
1	Modern Sociological Theories	MAS 201	Helps to understand social realities Develops the ability of individuals and institutions to understand and solve complex social issues Seeks to understand the social world	✓
2	Comparative Sociology	MAS 202	The student can better understand different societies and develop a deeper understanding of social realities. can understand similarities and differences between social phenomena	✓
3	Criminology-II	MAS 203	By studying this course, the student assimilates his conduct and behavior according to social rules, laws and social value model and can play an important role in social welfare and maintaining social order	✓	✓		✓
4	Sociology Of Popular Culture And Mass Communication	MAS S02	The student learns through socialization by learning the shared behavior, values, beliefs and attitudes in the culture through information systems, learns the social fabric and adapts to the society.	✓			✓

5	Urban Society In India	MAS B01	A detailed study of urban society, organizations, institutions and groups helps the student to understand the various problems arising from urban life.	✓			✓
6	Study Of Indian Diaspora	MAS B02	Objective of India's foreign policy: Swachh Bharat, Make in India, Digital India, Skill India etc. projects provide nourishment to the students. Contribution of diaspora can increase the chances of Indians making a comprehensive contribution. Students can develop a broad perspective.	✓		✓
7	Sociology Of Religion	MAS B03	The student gets the education to follow the path of spirituality and morality and gets the strength to struggle with the situations of real life. Religion promotes humanity.	✓			